

TEENAGE GIRL OF HONOR

This is a girl who is confident, respects herself for what God has made her to be. She is:

- Focused on her education
- Honors her parents and their words
- Respects her teachers
- Trustworthy friend
- Has good behaviors
- Does not use her body to earn money
- Dresses decently
- Committed to abstaining from sex until marriage
- Knows how to say NO to sex
- Practices sexual purity (pure mind and body)
- Knows her self-worth and value, she is not cheap
- Does house work at home and school and learns what she does not know
- Not money minded but satisfied with what she has
- Respects men and does not use them for money
- Puts in practice the word of God
- Knows she is beautifully and wonderfully made by God (high self-esteem)
- Strives to be a girl God wants her to be through learning about Him
- Values and respects her self
- She speaks with wisdom
- Trusts, depends on God for her education and future
- Above all committed her life to the Lord and Knows with Him nothing is impossible

Look through that list are you that girl? Usually we are not; therefore you can become that girl by:

- Committing your life to the Lord
- Set goals in your Life
- Setting biblical principles and godly values you will follow in Life e.g. honesty, faithfulness, diligence and hard work.
- Through prayer ask God to change you, to make you a girl He wants you to be.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for loving me, forgive me for all that I have done, I pray you will make me a girl of honor from today on wards. Change me that you will shine in me.

Please pray for one item for a time that God will help you do it. They will not come in your life unless you pray, trust God and also commit yourself to doing it.